CREEDMOOR.

THE FIRST REGULAR PRACTICE OF THE AMER-CAN TEAM-THE NEW ORLEANS TEAM IN THE FIELD-INFANTRY AND CAVALRY COM-

The American rife team shot yesterday over the three long ranges at Creedmoor for the first time since it was organized. All the members, with the two reserves, were on the ground and ready to begin shootng by ten o'clock. Although the day was warm the weather proved inversible to good shooting. Hardly a breath of wind stirred the vane of the dial indicator or the signal flags along the ranges. The light, too, was clear and steady, there being but little fuctuation, and neither a high glare nor deep shadows, which often intervene to after the elevations. The shooting of the team was very good indeed, seven of its members making 200 points or over out of a possible 225. The aggregate total of the scores made by the team proper is 1,608, and if Hepburn's score be substituted for that of Dakin the total would be 1,638, out of a possible 1,800 points. In either case the sporing is the highest that has ever been done anywhere by the same number of men on the same day. Calculating on what has been accomplished by the team proper only, the average per man is 201; and if Mr. Repburn's score be substituted for the lowest one Mr. Repburn's score be substituted for the lowest one of the team, the average per man would be 204%; a record which stands unequalled in the annals of rifle shooting. General Dakin had the misfortune to get his sight-block displaced in his efforts to make perfection more perfect by trying, in the midst of his score, to split the difference of a hair's breadth, which he believed it lacked of being in the true centre of the barrel. He also lost a matter of ten points by mistaking the firing point at which he was practising for another one. As the day advanced a capful of wind set in, which however, was not of sufficient force to interfere with the shooting. The practice was not finished until a quarter after four o'clock. Mr. Frank Hyde stands at the top of the list with 214 out of a possible 225 points, one of the best scores ever made at Greedmoor.

The team of six members from the Crescent City Rife Club, who are to represent the State of Louisiana next month in the interstate long range match, were at Creedmoor for practice yesterday and shot over the three long range distances. From the scores, which are given below, it will be seen that the gentlemen have done very well, indeed, considering that everything around them was new and that they have hardly had time to get into their usual good form since undergoing the fatigues of some tweive hundred miles railroad travel. Mr. Dudley Selph, whose name as an expert marksman is well known, kept up his reputation in all respects. The first shot which he fired on the ranges (at 800 yards) was a bult's eye, and he followed this success by making a clean score of fifteen "bulls" at the first range. At 900 yards Mr. Arms made tweive bull's eyes in succession. The team total, not including the reserves, loots up to 756 out of resistie 900 points; a record which is equal to an individual average of 1914 out of a possible 225 points. Mr. Selph heads the score on a very good showing of 201 points.

The captain of the Lousanas State team is Mr. James Buckley, a well invored gentleman of thirty-three summers. He is stout, not very tall, of florid complexion and black hair. Mr. Buckley's engaged in the stationery business at New Orleans.

Mr. Selph is a Mississippian by birth. He was born in 1847, being now in his thritieth year. He is about five feet six or seven inches in height, well proportioned, brownish hair and gray eyes, very lithe and active in his movements, being, with all, of a social and conversational turn of mind, Mr. Selph shoots in the Fulton position—that is, he lies on his bick, places the plane of the but close to the right ear; puts the left arm round the back of the bedd, the better to support the spinal column, and grasps the heel with the left hand, with which the rifle is held and attended, while the right hand embraces the small of the but (pistol grap) and the foreflager touches the trigger. The legs are crossed, the right overlapping the left, and the barrel of the piece is rested between them.

Mr. William Arms is a tall, thin, muscular man, of about forty-two years of age. He is a master builder and contractor by profession. He shows a great deal of method and coolness in his practice, and will be likely to come well to the front. He shouts in the Fulton position.

Mr. R. G. Eyrich is about thirty years of age; is low

Mr. J. S. Conlin will propose to General Dakin, on behalf of Mr. Cheever, to erect on the range a telephone which would place the marksmen in instantaneous communication with the markers in the butts.

INPANTRY AGAINST CAVALKY.

Teams composed of ten mon each; one from Captain Wobber's company, Seventy-first regiment, and the other from the Washington Grays troop-cavalry, shot against each other yesterday afternoon for the honor-of victory. The infantry won on a scere of 501 points, the cavalry making 486; thus losing by difteen points.

The Washington Grays.

The Washington Grays troop of cavalry had their third competition at Creedmoor yesterday afternoon for the Kent field glass and Decker medal. Sergeant McHugh won the glass on a score of 54 out-of a possible 70 points, and Sergeant David Wilson carried off the medal on a score of 51 points, this being;the third time he has won it.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE NEW BROADWAY THEATRE.

This handsome establishment, which has been un-dergoing change and repairs until it will-scarcely be recognized, was opened last evening for private in-spection. To-night it will be thrown open to the pubic, when the initial presentation of Joaquin Miller's lic, when the initial presentation of Joaquin Miller's "Danites; or, the Heart of the Sierras," will take place. If one may judge of the dress rehearsals, the expectations concerning the success of the play are not ill-founded. The theatre itself is a model of beauty, convenience and safety. It possesses superior acoustic qualities, is handsomely lighted, notify adorned, will sent 1,500 people, and promises to be one of the most popular reserts in the city.
